ROCKWOOD MANOR Retreats & Events

Rockwood Manor Retreats & Events is a 30-acre wooded park and historic 1920s country house standing for over a century neighboring with the C&O Canal and Potomac River. The manor house has hosted first ladies, international diplomats, and thousands of private events throughout its rich history.

A HISTORIC HIDDEN GEM

For 40 years, Rockwood was a National Girl Scout Camp, and over the last 35 years, the property has been transformed into a unique retreat destination with charming lodging and converted cabins. Just six minutes from the Capital Beltway, and you find yourself in another world — the champion trees embrace you, and, in no time at all, you are relaxing in a rocking chair on the veranda overlooking the beautiful Gazebo Garden or sipping a warm mug of hot chocolate by the fire pit.

YOUR PERFECT EVENT

The Manor House is the centerpiece of the property and accommodates up to 120 event guests. Have your ceremony on the flagstone patio, followed by cocktails on the veranda, and a seated banquet in the rustic elegance of Brooke Hall. The Hoover Hall ballroom and festive Rapidan sunroom transform into a two-level party space for dessert and dancing. Flexible floor plans mean you can customize your guest experience and event flow to make your event completely unique.

THE GREATEST GIFT OF ALL: TIME

Book a weekend wedding retreat, granting you exclusive access to our grounds, including all six of our overnight accommodations (up to 85 guests!) and extended use of the Manor House event space. Enjoy the convenience of having your rehearsal dinner, wedding day, and day-after brunch all on the same property. Catch up with out-of-town guests, decorate at your leisure with your friends and family, go hiking at Great Falls, and end each evening by the fire pit at the Greenwood Amphitheater.
